

A photograph of a red brick townhouse with a large tree in front and a car parked on the street. The townhouse has a dark brown door with the number 258 above it. There are several windows, some with flower boxes. A large tree with green leaves is in the foreground, partially obscuring the building. A dark grey car is parked on the street in front of the house. The word "august" is written in a white, cursive font in the upper right corner of the image.

"Our society will come to respect the sanitation worker if it is to survive for the person who picks up our garbage,
is as significant as the physician, for if he doesn't do his job,
diseases are rampant.
All labor has dignity"

...It's easy to say I'll shake hands with the parts of me I'm working on, far more difficult to actually offer my hand, but perhaps that's where the shaking-up of transitions come in. So often, I wish to be patient, be forbearing, be kind, but I think these characteristics are always being developed - note, present progressive.
